

Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Va., as second class matter. SUMMERVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 61.

Along with the coming of the beautiful spring comes the demand for Spring Sewing. If in your case this calls for a new machine, look the line over at Hoffman's, from $15.00 up. The WHITE is King.

C. F. HOFFMAN, The Jeweler.

It Takes Care to Prepare Good Soda.

Care must be exercised in selecting choice fruit juices and flavorings, making proper syrups from them, using plenty of ice and observing proper cleanliness. We are cautious and strict observers on all these points.

Father Edward M. Driscoll, A. H. Fasemyer, James Martin and Frank Johnston, of New Bethlehem, passed through this place Friday from a trout fishing jaunt in Potter county. Mr. Fasemyer stated to ye scribe that they caught some fine trout, but we did not see any of the trout.

M. Mohney, who has resided in Reynoldsville many years, but who has been working in the neighborhood of Pittsburgh the past two years, moved his family to Bellevue, a suburb of Pittsburgh, this week. Mr. Mohney and family have many friends here who are sorry to see them move away from our town.

John Hutchin and wife, formerly residents of Port Barnett, have sold their property at that place and will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. John I. McDonald in Reynoldsville. Mr. Hutchin is a brother of Mrs. McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchin intend going to Alabama this fall for benefit of Mr. Hutchin's health.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church, Clarion District, was held in the M. E. church at Brookwayville on Thursday and Friday of last week. There was a good attendance and it was a very interesting and inspiring convention. The next convention will be held in the M. E. church at Punxsutawney.

A foreign woman walked down Main street yesterday forenoon through the rain carrying an umbrella over herself with one hand, holding up her skirts with the other hand and had a large telescope balanced on top of her head. This oriental custom is so seldom seen in this section that every person the woman passed on the street turned to "rubber."

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson, of Brookwayville, formerly residing in the neighborhood of Emerickville, buried a two-year-old daughter at Emerickville Friday forenoon. Scarlet fever was cause of the child's death and the parents could not ship the body on the railroad, and had to have it hauled overland, but the parents and friends came to this place by rail. Undertaker J. H. Hughes had charge of the funeral.

Merrill, nine-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schugers, of Horns-town, died at 3.00 a. m. Friday, May 12, 1905, and was buried in the Smith cemetery Sunday forenoon. This baby was injured September 8, 1904, when a horse frightened at a DuBois automobile near Emerickville and mother and baby were thrown out of buggy. The baby was never well after the accident and Mr. Schugers thinks injuries received at that time was cause of its death.

Died in Hospital. Christ Hoffman, of this place, died in the hospital at Butler yesterday, where he had been operated on for kidney trouble. Body will be brought to Reynoldsville at noon to-day. Funeral to-morrow.

Will Build an Annex. Frank A. McConnell, proprietor of Frank's Tavern, will have his large barn moved from Second street to rear of lot and will have a large annex to hotel built where barn now stands. There will be twenty bed rooms and two bath rooms in the annex.

Scheafnocker is Hustling. Grant Scheafnocker, of this place, Republican candidate for nomination for sheriff, has taken off his overalls and has started into the campaign in real earnest. C. E. Shannon, of Brookville, came to town Monday to fill Grant's position with the Oil City Fuel Supply Co. until the June primaries.

L. Zimmerman.

Doctor of Pharmacy. Harry L. McEntire, only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McEntire of Reynoldsville, graduates from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy this week, the commencement will be held to-morrow, Thursday, evening. Mrs. McEntire went to Philadelphia yesterday to attend the commencement. Harry has passed the state board examination for registered pharmacist and is now a doctor of pharmacy. He has accepted a position in a Philadelphia drug store. Harry is a bright and energetic young man.

Begins Fourteenth Year. With this issue THE STAR enters its fourteenth year. During the thirteen years we have made a special effort to give the readers of this paper all the news every week. It has been our aim to make THE STAR a good local paper. Of course we have not been able to please everybody, and did not expect to do so, as that is an impossibility, but we have not intentionally hurt any persons feelings by publishing items of news or omitting any news. We have tried to be fair with all our readers, rich or poor, and if we have at any time omitted items of news it was because we were not informed about it.

New Schedule. A new schedule goes into effect on the P. R. R. on Sunday, May 28th, but there will be no change in the time of passenger trains at Reynoldsville. Train No. 105, due here at 6.14 p. m., will stop twenty-five minutes at DuBois to connect with a train from Erie and Kane. The train from Kane that now arrives at Falls Creek in time to connect with the train due here at 5.27 p. m. will be about one hour and forty minutes later, arriving at Falls Creek at 6.40 p. m., and will not connect with the train for Pittsburgh. The evening train from Falls Creek to Kane will leave Falls Creek about one hour later than it does on present schedule.

Closing Business College. The Reynoldsville Business College, which was opened about four years ago by Prof. H. J. Hughes and wife, will close the first of next month. Prof. Hughes accepted a government position six or eight weeks ago and cannot be here to look after the college and finally decided to close it. This college had built up a reputation for giving thorough instruction, graduating well qualified students and was pretty well patronized for a comparatively new institution. It would have been a good thing for the town if Prof. Hughes could have continued the college, but he had to work hard to get the college up to a high standard along educational lines, and keep it there, and the position he now holds is much easier and has a good salary attached to it, therefore, all things considered, Prof. made the decision for his best interest, and after June 1st the Reynoldsville Business College will be a thing of the past.

Trunks and suit cases at Millirens.

Funeral of Maud King. The funeral of Miss Maude King was held at the family residence on Grant street at 2.00 p. m. Friday, conducted by Rev. A. D. Will Lecture Four Nights. Mrs. E. Norine Law, author, lecturer and vocalist, will lecture four nights in Centennial hall on Prohibition, beginning next Sunday night. It is claimed that Mrs. Law is one of the most versatile and popular women on the reform platform. Gifted as a speaker, with extraordinary, peculiar power, she is also a charming singer. The Yorker, (N. Y.) Herald says: "Mrs. E. Norine Law, of Detroit, Mich., certainly combines in herself a union of all the qualities that go to make up an effective and delightful speaker. She is perfect in form and features; has a melodious and musical voice, a perfect control of language."

Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the M. E. church, will preside Sunday night, Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, Monday night, Rev. J. W. Crawford, pastor of Sykesville Baptist church, Tuesday night, and Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor Presbyterian church, will preside Wednesday night.

Ninth Annual Commencement. A large audience attended the ninth annual commencement exercises in Assembly hall last Wednesday evening and listened very attentively to the fine essays and orations given by the graduates. The program was as follows:

Overture, orchestra; essay, "Success," Miss Amy Bollinger; essay, "Influence," Miss Jeanie McGaw; oration, "Henceforth," Fred E. McEntire; song, "O'er the Waters," Misses Lillian Harries, Lena Herpel, Lillie Northey, Nellie Foley, Joanne Milliren, Melissa Sensor, Florence Harris, Mary Parsons; essay, "The Brook is the Soul of the Landscape," Miss Geneva Milliron; oration, "Before the Footlights of the Twentieth Century," Percy Parsons; essay, "National Progress," Miss Cora McCreight; quartet, "Stars of the Summer Night," Leonard Harris, Frank King, Craig King and Percy Parsons; essay, "Fireside Angels," Miss Besse Sensor; essay, "Ashes of Roses," Miss Adda Myers; "An Evening Out," orchestra. After reading of essays and delivering of orations County Supt. R. B. Teitrick presented the diplomas to the graduates.

Ithaca Male Quartette. A most delightful concert given by the Ithaca Conservatory Concert Company was enjoyed to the full at the Iris Club yesterday afternoon. The personnel of the Company forms a really ideal group. In ensemble work the finely trained voices harmonize perfectly and the solos were gems of melody, executed with rare pathos and tenderness. The concert was one long to be remembered, and it is to be hoped that the Company may be heard in Lancaster again.—Lancaster (Pa.) Daily News Era.

Scheafnocker is the Favorite.

I am pretty well acquainted all over the county and spent most of last week looking over the field to see what my chances would be for sheriff, and I believe my chances would be all right if I could get Grant Scheafnocker out of the picture, but he went in to stay until the wind up and when he is sheriff, he will make as good a one as I would, which is a big thing for me to acknowledge. Wherever I went over the county the people, or the most of them, said to me: "Scheafnocker is my man," and when they said this I of course gave up the ship and smoke my own tobacco instead of giving them to the people over the county who might never give me a thought or a vote. Grant will make a good sheriff and will fit the office as well as he does the gas pipes, and there is no plumber in this or any other town can do a better or nearer job of work than he. I have been acquainted with Grant since Reynoldsville many years ago and know him to be a good, honest citizen, as honest as the June long.

Every one in Reynoldsville who knows Grant Scheafnocker and every one in Reynoldsville will tell you that Scheafnocker is all right and that all right you can make up your mind that he is.—DuBois Searchlight.
